

Scopus Training Session

【Presenter】 Junya Inoue (Elsevier Japan)

Wednesday, 15th May, 2019

This workshop is in English. ★ Reservations Required

Two same sessions will be held.

Campus	Hours	Place	Seating capacity
Toyonaka	13:00-14:30	Information Education Room 4 (2nd Floor) Toyonaka Education and Research Center, Cybermedia Center	45
Suita	16:20-17:50	Computer Study Room A (2nd Floor) GSE CommonWest, Graduate School of Engineering	72

Topics

- ☆ What is Scopus?
(comparing with other Databases)
- ☆ Basic search workflow.
- ☆ Find High-impact articles.
- ☆ Search for Authors.
- ☆ Check journal metrics.

Find the latest articles about your research topic

Find important articles based on citations

Check the author profile of a top researcher

Select a journal to publish with

What is Scopus?

Scopus is the largest abstract and citation database for peer-reviewed literature covering the fields of science, technology, medicine, social science, and arts and humanities.

Also, checking by Authors profile/Journal Metrics.

Please apply at the library's website.

https://www.library.osaka-u.ac.jp/en/news/eng20190416_common/

【Contact】

[Toyonaka Campus] Learning & Research Support Section, Main Library
[Suita Campus] Science and Engineering Library

servkikaku@library.osaka-u.ac.jp
w3master-sl@library.osaka-u.ac.jp